

AKC OUTSTANDING SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

In the American Kennel Club’s ongoing efforts to recognize and celebrate its volunteer club members, The AKC Outstanding Sportsmanship Award program was established in 2006 to provide each member club with an AKC Medallion to award to one of its own on a yearly basis.

This award honors those individuals who you feel deserves special recognition for making a difference in the sport of purebred dogs (conformation, performance, coursing, etc.), embodied the AKC Code of Sportsmanship, and is currently a member in good standing with IHCUS.

Now is the time to be thinking of that someone who has made a difference and nominate one of our fellow IHCUS members. The nominations must be descriptive and solely pertain to IHCUS and not other dog clubs. These descriptions will be bullet pointed for the voting ballot. After all nominations have been received, a ballot will be sent to the membership which will be used to declare a winner. IHCUS announces the recipient of the AKC Outstanding Sportsmanship Award at the Annual Specialty Dinner. Nominations must be received by May 10th via USPS to the Awards Chairperson ((see IHCUS website for correct person – (Current IHCUS Committee Chairpersons) or you may email your nomination to Awards Chairperson (awards@ihcus.org)

IHCUS Awards Chair

Nominee: _____

Description of making a difference in the sport and embodying the AKC Code of Sportsmanship:

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Use a separate page, if necessary